

Reporting Food and Housing Complaints

To report complaints or concerns about food service facilities or residential properties in Anne Arundel County, call the Housing and Food Protection Program. The Housing and Food Protection Program has contact numbers for the North, Central and South regions of the County.

The map below identifies each region using a coded color. To report a complaint about a food service facility or residential property, determine the region using the color coded map and call the appropriate Food and Housing Unit. You may also request to review or obtain copies of housing and food protection records by using this form.

North Unit: 410-222-0056

Central Unit: 410-222-7363

South Unit: 410-222-7239

